SEATON mayor Councillor Marcus Hartnell has announced he will not seek a second term in office.

The announcement was made during the annual town meeting on Thursday, April 20th, and came as part of the mayor's report.

Cllr Hartnell, a family man who runs his own business and also serves as a district councillor, said he simply does not have the time to do the job properly another term.

Addressing the meeting, he said: "I shall not be seeking re-election as mayor in May.

"I have been asked by some people, and I have given it much consideration.

"But the past year has been exceptionally demanding on my time, mainly because of circumstances out of both mine and the council's control.

"I have always put the council first, often to the detriment of my personal life – and whilst I have largely enjoyed my experience as mayor, my commitments over the coming 12 months will not allow me the time or the dedication required to do the job properly."

Councillor Hartnell, who took over as mayor

Anders Larsson
Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

from Tony Woodman last spring, added: "We have a wealth of expertise and experience within the council that I am certain will see good strong candidates for mayor come forward.

"I hope you agree that, as I end my term as mayor, the council is in a far better position than it was when I was elected 12 months ago.

"I wish my successor, whoever he or she may be, the very best of luck."

Previously in the speech, he looked back on the year and said: "It was last April we relocated to this building [Marshlands].

"Since then we have progressed our plans to refurbish Marshlands into a multi-use facility that not only serves the council as offices and a council chamber, but also as a function room for the community and commercial use, along with office space for local businesses.

"The aspiration of the council is to generate further income by renting out all the space within the building to not only cover our own costs, but potentially generate a surplus."

He also recalled turbulent times, saying: "Operationally the council has been through some turbulence over the past 12 months.

"Our former clerk departed in July 2016 and, following that, we also said farewell to two of our admin staff.

"We were without a full-time clerk for six months, which did put a lot of strain on us all.

"I am extremely appreciative of the work of councillors throughout this period, deputy mayor Cllr Rowland and also councillors Sanham, Squire, Beer and Pigott, who all went above and beyond the call of duty to ensure the council functioned during this time.

"In February we welcomed Amy Tregellas, our new town clerk. Amy has hit the ground running and has lost no time in getting stuck into the role.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank Amy and all the council staff for their support and guidance during my term in office."

Somerset police rated as 'Good' in report

AVON and Somerset Constabulary has been rated 'Good' in the annual State of Policing Report.

Inspectors look at effectiveness, efficiency and legitimacy, and can give an overall grade of either Inadequate, Requires Improvement, Good or Outstanding.

Wendy Williams of Her Majesty's Inspectorate of Constabulary (HMIC), said: "I am very pleased with the overall performance of Avon and Somerset Constabulary.

"I am particularly impressed by the force's comprehensive understanding of the existing demand for its services, which is based on a wide range of information and a sophisticated appreciation of the capacity of the workforce and workload it carries.

"The force is adept at restructuring and modernising its workforce to equip it with the skills to meet future needs.

"It has achieved this through close alignment of the force's financial and workforce planning, which has, for example, increased the force's capacity to investigate child abuse and serious sexual offences.

"I am pleased with the improved effectiveness with which the force keeps the people of Avon and Somerset safe and reduces crime.

"In particular, the force has improved its response to missing children and domestic abuse and the quality of its investigations.

"Since our inspection in 2014, the force has made concerted efforts to improve the accuracy with which it records crimes and it has made progress in placing the victim at the forefront of crime-recording decisions.

"I welcome the progress the force has made in addressing some of the concerns that were raised by our inspection of police custody.

"In summary, the force provides a good level of service to the people of Avon and Somerset. I commend the force for having maintained and in some respects, improved its performance, since my previous assessment."

Deputy Chief Constable Gareth Morgan was pleased with the report, which acknowledged the progress the force had made during the past 12 months.

He said: "We have been praised for being good at preventing crime, anti-social behaviour and keeping people safe; investigating crime and reducing re-offending; and protecting those who are vulnerable from harm and supporting victims.

"The past year has been a time of transition and HMIC inspectors have recognised the very hard work and commitment of officers and staff in achieving some significant improvement.

"Keeping local communities safe, supporting vulnerable victims and reducing crime are the highest priorities for us.

"Neighbourhood policing is central to that and we will continue to preserve the numbers of frontline officers and PCSOs."

The inspection report for Devon and Cornwall Police was published earlier this year, the grade being Requires Improvement.

NFU urges political parties to support British farming

The NFU says all political parties must make it clear before the General Election how they intend to support the farming industry.

NFU president Meurig Raymond said: "With farming arguably the sector most impacted by Brexit, NFU members will want to understand how each of the political parties plans to support profitable, productive and progressive agriculture and horticulture in the future.

"The right post-Brexit trade deal is absolutely critical but equally well so is a new wider policy framework that better delivers for farming and the nation.

"Throughout the next seven weeks the NFU will ensure that all parties fully understand and engage with the food and farming community on the issues facing the sector both now and post-Brexit.

"British farms currently grow the raw ingredients for the UK food and drink manufacturing sector - worth £108 billion - and moreover the public want to continue to buy British food.

"For that to happen it's vital that candidates recognise the enormous contribution that agriculture makes - for every £1 invested, farming delivers £7.40 back to this country - and to back British farming."

Snap election catches local parties by surprise

PRIME Minister Theresa May's decision to call a snap general election has everyone at panic stations as local political parties look to find a candidate to stand.

And in another twist, Daisy Benson – who was announced as the Liberal Democrats' Yeovil constituency candidate last summer – has pulled out of the race for 'personal reasons'.

Every incumbent MP across Pulman's Country has announced they will be standing for re-election in an area that proved vital for the Conservatives' overall victory in 2015.

Political parties have until May 12th to name their candidates, with the election taking place on June 8th.

East Devon independent candidate in 2015, Claire Wright – who pushed Hugo Swire all the way – has said she is still considering whether or not to stand.

Ms Wright said it is entirely dependent on whether or not she can muster an army of supporters to help with the campaign.

So far across the country the decision has left the political powers reeling. Former Chancellor of the Exchequer George Osborne has decided to choose journalism over politics and has announced he will not be standing for re-election in his constituency of Tatton.

Former Labour Party leader Ed Milliband and former deputy prime minister Nick Clegg have both announced they will be standing again.

But former Conservative Party chairman Sir Eric Pickles is standing down after 25 years of being the MP for Brentwood and Ongar.

Lib Dem big guns that fell last time round, including Vince Cable, Simon Hughes and Ed Davey, will attempt to win back their seats, but no word yet on whether Daisy Benson's withdrawal as Yeovil candidate will affect former MP David Laws' decision not to run.

Tributes paid to Crewkerne headteacher David Carter after his sudden death at school

TRIBUTES are pouring in for 'inspirational member of the community' David Carter following his sudden death.

David was headteacher at St Bartholomew's First School in Crewkerne, a position he had held since 2013, with Somerset County Council describing him as 'a caring, committed and inspiring member of the community who was passionate about providing the best education for all school-children'.

David, 41, was also known on the local football circuit as a referee and former manager of Hawkchurch Reserves.

The chairman of governors and deputy head of St Bartholomew's First School in Crewkerne jointly released a statement last week.

Beryl Eeles and Gemma Coward said: "We are deeply saddened and shocked by the sudden passing of St Bartholomew's First School's headteacher David Carter.

"Our thoughts are with his family and friends at this very sad time.

"He was a highly respected colleague and friend, and will be sadly missed by all in the school community."

David leaves behind his wife, Kelly, and four children.

Bob Brunt, former secretary of the Perry Street League, paid tribute to his friend of 20 years.

Mr Brunt said: "I first met Dave through refereeing him playing football as a goalkeeper for Hawkchurch; I worked with him as the Maiden Beech sports co-ordinator at Hinton St George First School.

"I persuaded him into refereeing when the Hawkchurch Reserves side departed from the league, and watched his first game as an official at Uplyme.

"We took part in a half marathon together in Torquay, and ran with each other the whole way, which turned out to be his best time over the distance.

"Everyone had great respect for Dave in whatever group he worked in; multi-talented with a love of life and people.

"A great man who has gone far too early in life; cannot stop seeing his smiling face in most things I do at the moment."

Mr Brunt said he will be taking part in the upcoming Torbay half-marathon as a tribute to David.

A spokesperson for the South Western Ambulance Service said: "We were called out on Wednesday, April 19th at 5:43pm to St Bartholomew's first school.

"One male casualty, having suffered a cardiac arrest."

He was pronounced dead at the scene.

St Bart's school was closed for the rest of the week and reopened yesterday (Monday, April 24th).

Seaton Heights development could be back on the cards

THERE is renewed optimism that the Seaton Heights up-market resort could be built after all.

Plans for a hotel, holiday homes, a restaurant and spa seemed to have died when Lyme Bay Leisure put the site up for auction earlier this year, having failed to find investors.

The auction was held on March 24th, but the former motel site failed to reach its guide price of £2.5-£3million.

Lyme Bay Leisure has since put renewed efforts into reviving the plans.

Company chairman David Sullivan has confirmed that investors have been found, but stressed nothing has been decided.

On Wednesday, April 19th, he told Pulman's View From Seaton & Colyton: "Nothing is certain yet, but we are unlikely to sell the site through auction as the site didn't reach its reserve price.

"Therefore, we are pressing on and we have funding in place to complete the project, but there are many challenges ahead still."

Mr Sullivan was unable to say more, but hopes to be able to give a more detailed update in the next few weeks.

The project, which the company says will bring 40 jobs when completed, has suffered a number of setbacks and delays.

The original planning application had to be revised and East Devon District Council (EDDC) then refused planning permission after Natural England said a bat assessment was required.

Lyme Bay Leisure said the request came out of the blue and posed a threat to the whole project.

The subsequent delay was costly but planning permission was eventually granted after MP Neil Parish facilitated a meeting for those involved.

The coast seemed clear when the company announced in March last year that contractors had been hired and that the first phase of work was about to start.

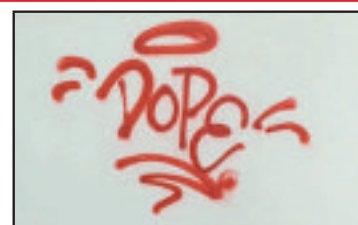

But this did not happen. Lyme Bay Leisure saying it was in negotiations with EDDC to make the scheme commercially viable.

As the site and its derelict buildings stood idle, it became a popular hangout for youths and subsequent vandalism.

The decision was then made to put the site up for auction, but there was no buyer.

Former councillor Margaret Rogers dies

OBITUARY

A LONG-serving former councillor for the Seaton area has died, writes DAVID JOHNSON.

Margaret Alison Rogers (nee McWilliam) died in Harrogate, North Yorkshire on April 9th, aged 87, of congestive cardiac failure, a progressive condition that she fought with her customary tenacity. She was born in New Malden, Surrey, on April 20th 1929, the fourth child in a family of five.

Alderman Mrs Rogers began her career in London, working first as a teacher, then training teachers.

She spent several holidays in Branscombe from since she was a young child, and eventually retired there in 1975.

Her retirement proved to be an active one as Margaret and her husband Noel joined the East Devon Liberal Party and its successor, the Liberal Democrats.

Both went on to become candidates and local councillors.

Margaret was elected to Devon County Council from 1985 until 1989, and then again from 1993 for the Seaton Rural Division, serving until 2009.

As a county councillor, she served on numerous committees and outside bodies including the Executive, Education, Environment, Standards, Commercial and Regulatory and Public Rights of Way Committees and the Community Services Scrutiny Committee.

She represented the council on the Court of the University of Exeter, the Devon Sea Fisheries Committee and the National Association of Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

She was chairman of the council from 1998 to 1999.

At various times, she also chaired the Education Committee and Community Services Scrutiny Committee and also sat as an Executive Member for the Environment.

Margaret was first elected to East Devon District Council in 1982.

She served for four years and was re-elected in 1995 and served as Seaton Ward Member until her resignation in 2010 – a total of 19 years.

She served on a range of district council committees including the Policy, Tourism and Transportation, Amenities and Scrutiny Committees and was a member of the Executive Board from 2003-2005.

During her time on EDDC, Margaret was particularly active in promoting Seaton and sustainability issues.

She was committed to serving the local area and was held in high regard by the community she served at both district and county levels.

She often spoke up for the most vulnerable in society and was not afraid to debate controversial issues or challenge the status quo.

Once she ceased to be a local councillor both councils conferred upon her the title of Honorary Alderman, a position for former councillors who had rendered eminent service to the council.

In her later years, following her husband's death, Mrs Rogers moved to Harrogate in North Yorkshire to be near her daughter's family, though she never completely cut ties with East Devon and retained a special affection for Seaton and Branscombe.

She is survived by her children Alison Johnson (nee Rogers), Nicholas Rogers, her son-in-law David Johnson and grandson Matthew Johnson (known professionally as Matthew Coulton).

Recycling changes

KEY information about improvements to East Devon District Council's (EDDC) household recycling and waste collection service is in the post.

Cardboard, plastics, cartons and small electrical items will be added to weekly recycling collections whilst the grey, wheeled waste bins are to be collected every three weeks.

The new service will become effective on June 12th, and most households will be given an additional 75-litre reusable sturdy sack with a Velcro seal in which to collect their extra recyclables. These will be delivered by the council's contractors, SUEZ, in May or June.

Some properties, such as flats, may receive an additional recycling box instead of a sack, where storage is a problem.

EDDC leader Cllr Paul Diviani said: "We are delighted with how well the service is operating in Exmouth [a pilot area] and it's now the right time for the rest of our residents in the district to be able to recycle more items."

"The council is determined to offer residents a more sustainable method of recycling and waste collection that benefits the environment, helps our residents do the right thing by recycling more and is financially sustainable."

The council has already started a series of information roadshows.

Forthcoming ones will be held on Friday April 28th at Honiton

Tesco from 10am to 2pm, Wednesday May 3rd at Seaton Library from 9.30am to 12.30pm, in Feniton [location and time tba] on Wednesday May 10th and in Budleigh Salterton Library on Thursday May 11th from 9.30am to 12.30pm.

Further events are also being organised.

Cllr Diviani added: "We are here to help our residents through these changes and we will have a dedicated team of officers who will be out on the streets of our district giving advice and assisting wherever they can when the service begins."

Further information about the new service is available on the council's website – www.eastdevon.gov.uk/on-board – and includes a full list of what residents will be able to recycle.

You can also follow the council on Facebook at East Devon District Council and @eastdevon on twitter.

If you want to be kept fully up-to-date about your new collections, download the council's really useful smart phone app which will send you reminders about your collection days tailored to your own address. The East Devon mobile app is free and is available to download from the Apple App Store or the Google Play Store.

If you need assistance or advice about the new service, call 01395 571515.

For those wanting to make the most of the day, there is a free Dawn Chorus Walk at 6am starting from the Seaton Down Hill picnic site, opposite Seaton Tower Garage. The walk is led by experienced bird-watcher, Donald Campbell.

The main Bluebell Day celebrations will continue in Holyford Woods from 11am –

Activities start from the Countryside team display trailer, unless otherwise stated, and include guided wild flower and history walks, campfire cooking and a Stream Safari.

There will be stalls to browse and representation from a range of local groups including; the East Devon District Council Countryside team, Axe Vale and District Conservation Society, Goren Farm and the East Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Campfire snacks will be cooked in the woods, with refreshment proceeds going towards the management of Holyford Woods Trust.

Chairman of Holyford Woodland Trust, Mike Elsey said: "This annual event is a real highlight in the East Devon countryside events calendar, it is a fantastic opportunity for everyone to enjoy the magnificent setting of this ancient woodland and a range of activities on offer."

Visitors are encouraged to walk to the site. There is no vehicle access on the day, and anyone planning on driving should park at Colyton Memorial Hall where a free shuttle bus will be running throughout the day. The first bus leaves at 11am and the last bus returns at 4.15pm. Overflow parking is available at Colyton Grammar School.

Local groups benefit from Co-op community payout

THREE community organisations in Axminster shared about £5,000 from Co-op's Local Community Fund, launched as part of its new membership contribution scheme last year.

Axminster Care Service (£1,739), Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre (£1,578) and Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre (£1,569) were presented with cheques on Wednesday, April 19th.

The money was raised from purchases in Axminster's two Co-op shops.

Members get five per cent back on all Co-op product purchases, and a one per cent contribution is also passed to a 'pot' for community organisations chosen by the shops involved.

Rita Curryer and Ann Kilford collected a cheque for Axminster Care Service, and jointly said: "We are delighted and overwhelmed.

"We would like to thank Co-op and customers for raising the money."

More information, including on how to apply to become a chosen cause, is available from the shops.

Rotary Club offers free blood pressure check-ups

■ THE pressure was on when Axminster Rotarians and members of The Stroke Association set up a 'surgery' in The Minster.

An annual event, the two organisations invited members of the public to have a free blood pressure check.

Rotarian Barrie Castle said: "The 'Know Your

Blood Pressure' campaign is helping to prevent strokes and save lives: high blood pressure is the biggest risk factor for strokes and many of these could be prevented if people had advanced warning of their condition.

"Over 50 people took the opportunity to have their blood pressure checked in Axminster on Thursday morning and whilst the majority were reassured no further action was required, a small number were advised to contact their GP within a month for a follow-up."

Tractors trundle for Easter

A TRACTOR trundle, starting and finishing at Axminster Town Football Club, was the start of a busy and successful Easter Sunday.

A total of 45 tractors turned up for the trundle, which started at 11am for a circuit in the countryside including villages like Smallridge and Membury.

When the tractors were back in the afternoon, a host of activities and attractions for all ages awaited at the club.

There was a barbeque, an Easter egg hunt, face painting, games for children and much more.

Club chairman Ray Self said the event was a fundraiser for the club and thanked everyone who attended.

He said: "We had a good crowd in the morning with many farmers, and people watching the tractors."

"We had a great crowd from lunchtime on and made some serious money, just under £1,300."

He also said the event was a good opportunity to showcase the club and its facilities, making people want to come back.

Action packed programme for RNLI's Mayday appeal

THE RNLI's Seaton, Beer and district branch has a packed programme of events for their Mayday Appeal, which will run throughout the month of May.

Branch secretary Wendy

Anders Larsson
Chief reporter
anders@viewnews.co.uk

Cummins said: "We will be holding a Mayday Appeal collection at Tesco, Seaton, on Friday May 5th from 9.30am until 5.30pm.

"The theme will be yellow and yellow wellies, and we are inviting children and adults of all ages to take part in our Colour-in-a-Welly Poster Competition.

"People can also bring their own drawing, painting or collage or a Wellington boot on the day."

Entrants can obtain a copy of the poster by emailing wac500@hotmail.co.uk or by calling in at Tesco during the day.

The competition will be judged by a Tesco panel at approximately 4.30pm.

Wendy added: "On Friday, May 12th, an illuminated yellow welly will be taking part in the Yellow Welly Relay around the coast from Portishead Lifeboat Station to Harwich.

"It will be passing through our section on this day and calling at Sidmouth branch of the RNLI, visiting our shop at Beer and passing through Seaton.

"We invite people to support it on its journey."

Further details of the schedule will be available nearer the time.

Wendy will play a very active part during the appeal, and explained: "On Sunday, May 14th I am inviting people to join me on my Mayday Appeal Walk.

"It will be 40 years since I did my first walk for the RNLI with my late husband Nigel.

"On May 13th 1977 we walked along the coast path on a very foggy day and I still have the original sponsor forms and route instructions.

"This year the route will include some lanes due to the steep cliff paths.

"The walk is due to start at Sidmouth Observatory and go via Branscombe to Beer or Seaton.

"Walkers can email wac500@hotmail.co.uk or telephone 01297 23040 for a sponsor form or give a donation to the RNLI on the day.

"We look forward to our Mayday Appeal events and for the support to our branch of the RNLI."

New Seaton uke group

A NEW ukulele group has started up in Seaton and will be performing their brand of music throughout the summer, including a regular spot at the town's artisan market.

The Smugglers are an offshoot of the Lyme Luggers, after founding member Paul Grinter took his talents to Seaton.

The popular Lyme Luggers have quite a following and the Seaton arm of the group has already amassed a good group of members and are ready to start performing.

The Smugglers meet every Tuesday afternoon between 2pm and 4pm when they practice a wide range of music.

The band will be performing on the first Saturday of every month at the Artisan Market in Seaton, throughout the season apart from July.

The smugglers are also ready to perform other gigs and although they play for free they do ask for a donation to a local charity.

The group's motto has always been 'Music4U. Money 4 Charity'.

For further information, contact Paul on 07810 278 354 or find The Smugglers on Facebook.

Mayor: parkrun attracts visitors to town

SEATON'S weekly parkrun is a great way to attract visitors to the town, Seaton mayor Marcus Hartnell thinks.

He was recently invited to meet the volunteers involved and start the run, and believes the event could grow even further in summer.

No less than 124 runners were on the starting line on March 25th, the 20th Seaton Parkrun since the start last November.

Seaton Parkrun is one of 446 nationally and a further 640 across the globe.

All of them are free and take place every Saturday at 9am.

More than 1,000 different runners have taken part in the 5k Seaton Parkrun.

Anders Larsson

Chief reporter | anders@viewnews.co.uk

Before starting the event, Cllr Hartnell met with many of the volunteers who help with timing, marshaling and managing the results.

He later told Pulman's View From Seaton & Colyton: "It is a very well-organised event.

"It is obviously very good for the town in attracting people from surrounding towns and tourists.

"As we approach summer I think it will get bigger and have an even more positive impact.

"I heard many positive comments when I was there."

When asked if he'd take part, he laughed and said: "I'll run it in June.

"I walk it most of the days with the dog – and I do pick up."

Co-event director Carol Austin said: "Visitors have come from far and wide including the USA and Australia.

"Parkrun tourism is a big thing in itself and runners have visited from across the UK including Edinburgh, Cardiff, London, Carlisle, Sheffield and Brighton as well as from all parts of Devon, Dorset, Cornwall and Somerset.

"Some people have said they have come to Seaton because of parkrun.

"We are delighted with the response so far.

"We have had all ages and abilities taking part, many have never run before.

"The volunteers have been amazing, turning up week in week out, in all weathers, to make it happen.

"This is what parkrun is all about – it is a very welcoming and inclusive community encouraging a healthy lifestyle for everyone.

"There is no age limit in parkrun and children under 11 can run so long as they are with a parent or guardian. The youngest runner so far completing Seaton parkrun was six, with the oldest more than 75."

Parents help to upgrade pre-school's outdoor area

PARENTS connected with Kilmington Pre-School joined forces last month to carry out improvements.

Pre-school chairman Leaane Dean Stickles said: "We are very lucky at the pre-school to have a great outdoor space. But it needed a little spruce-up. We have had two amazing water walls made, a new footpath and patio laid.

"Our playhouse and mud kitchen has had a good splash of paint, the children also have had a great bug corner made. I would also like to mention that Bradfords of Axminster, West-crete of Axminster, Travis Perkins of Lyme Regis and the children's parents were all very generous in donating materials to help us achieve our new and improved outdoor area."

Annual Bluebell Day to be held over Bank Holiday weekend

EAST Devon District Council's Countryside team and the Holyford Woodland Trust are preparing for the annual Bluebell Day at Holyford Woods on Monday, May 1st.

With this year's Bluebell Day falling on May Day Bank Holiday the annual event is set to be as popular as ever.

For those wanting to make the most of the day, there is a free Dawn Chorus Walk at 6am starting from the Seaton Down Hill picnic site, opposite the Seaton Tower Garage. The walk, led by experienced bird-watcher Donald Campbell, will help participants to identify the birds they see and hear as they sing to welcome in the new day.

The main Bluebell Day celebrations will continue in Holyford Woods from 11am to 4pm. Visitors will enjoy a magical carpet of bluebells in the woods, as well as homemade refreshments and a variety of free walks and activities to suit all ages.

All activities will start from the Countryside team display trailer, unless otherwise stated on arrival, and include guided wildflower and history walks, campfire cooking, stream safari and much more.

There will be stalls to browse and representation from a range of local groups, including the East Devon District Council Countryside team, Axe Vale and District Conservation Society, Goren Farm and the East Devon Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

As well as delicious campfire snacks cooked in the woods, homemade refreshments will be available with all proceeds going towards the management of Holyford Woods Trust.

Chairman of Holyford Woodland Trust, Mike Elsey said: "This annual event is a real highlight in the East Devon countryside events calendar, it is a fantastic opportunity for everyone to enjoy the magnificent setting of this ancient woodland and a range of activities on offer."

East Devon Countryside Team Leader, Tim Dafforn, added: "Bluebell Day is always popular with local residents and visitors. The woods are truly beautiful, particularly at this time of year and Bluebell Day is a great celebration and showcase of this."

Visitors are encouraged to walk to the site. There is no vehicle access on the day, and anyone planning on driving should park at Colyton Memorial Hall where a free shuttle bus will be running throughout the day. The first bus will leave at 11am and the last bus returns at 4.15pm. Overflow parking is available at Colyton Grammar School.

The event was held in Colyton Memorial Hall where stalls included plants, cakes, bric-a-brac, books and competitions. The National Trust Shop at Sidmouth also attended and took £50 on their newly-labelled products. The money raised at these events forms part of the grants the centre makes to National Trust projects in the area at A La Ronde, Antony, Killerton House and a Ranger Scheme in Branscombe. ## INSPIRING WOMEN

■ BEER: Beer WI has had a good start to 2017 and celebrated its 92nd birthday in March. We have enjoyed talks on book restoration and hand-binding, boat-building using traditional skills and, this month, local resident Trevor Woods described his adventure to Shikoko Island, Japan, where he travelled 1,200km on foot to visit all 88 temples.

Our programme for the year has been agreed, including more talks (to which guests are always welcome), regular activities and outings and additional events – some for fun as well as fundraising.

At our April meeting we discussed the NFWI Resolutions and are sending a representative to the national AGM in Liverpool to vote on our behalf.

We also discussed the arrangements for attending the County Spring Meeting in Torquay, the group meeting in Colyford and the 90th birthday celebration of Colyton WI where we are invited to help stage an exhibition of 'Inspiring Women' through the decades.

Our next meeting in May is our AGM – for members only – but you are welcome to join us again in June when our talk will be on hedgerow medicine.

■ ALL SAINTS: The agenda for the All Saints and District April meeting included discussing the resolutions to be put forward to the AGM in Liverpool and our own annual meeting to elect a new committee and president.

The resolutions being discussed were 'alleviating loneliness' and 'plastic soup'. Both very worthwhile causes and after quite lengthy debates on both items votes were taken to put either one or both forward.

After tea and cakes we began our annual meeting; all members of the committee agreed to continue in their existing positions with Bev Walsh re-elected as president.

The Mrs Finzel Cup for the monthly competitions was presented to Marian Nixon, second place going to Sue Coltham and joint third to Eva Schofield and Gypsy Vile.

The Louise Doman Cup for flower of the month was presented to Juliet Ross, who also thanked the committee for all their hard work during the year.

Our next meeting will be held on May 9th at 2.30pm – with a talk from Simon Searle on 'Undertaking: A Family Concern'.

All visitors will be warmly welcomed."

■ AXE RIVER: Members of the Axe River WI recently enjoyed a trip to the Complete Meats factory in Axminster.

The ladies described the trip as "a laugh a minute" and thanked managing director Shaun Vining for showing them around.

Member Sue Gay commented: "Shaun was an amazing tutor, though I am afraid was not able to offer any of us a job!"

'Life or death' struggle for the NHS

■ AN OPEN LETTER TO TIVERTON & HONITON MP NEIL PARISH: I am very much in favour of a common front to resist cuts in local NHS hospital beds.

I agree that the consultation has been a sham, though given the huge scale of the cuts imposed by secretive Sustainability and Transformation plans supported by the Secretary of State – estimated at £540million in Devon – how could it be otherwise?

I agree that the case for cutting local medical beds has not been made especially since there is also a major crisis in social care.

The Institute for Fiscal Studies reports that spending has fallen by 11 per cent since your government took office.

Thus we have the making of a 'double whammy' for those needing care in local hospitals or at home.

It is hardly surprising that many feel we can no longer trust those who claim to be acting in our interests and do not believe the promises made.

This was clear as you tried to speak at the Red Line protest at Honiton hospital. Frankly, like many others, I found your remarks less than convincing given your loyal support for the government, NHS and Social Care Act, and creation of CCGs and privatisation.

According to the BMA, Kings Fund, etc, the government requires £22billion savings/reductions in funding by 2020-21.

Incredibly you suggested the bed cuts are not a matter of politics but are due to decisions by civil servants or 'bureaucrats'.

You must know that civil servants are answerable to policy makers. At very least your claim suggests the government has created a monster it cannot control.

At a recent meeting of Honiton Senior Voice we heard this same mantra blaming civil servants put forward by Cllr Phil Twiss of EDDC.

You also mentioned once again that you had appealed to the Secretary of State.

Why would you do this if you truly believe these cuts are not a result of political decisions?

Many people have spotted the obvious contradictions in the position on NHS cuts adopted by you and others of your party at national and local level which are clearly causing difficulties for you and many of your council colleagues.

Might I suggest a way forward by taking four steps to ensure better transparency and accountability:

1. You speak up in Parliament quite clearly rejecting these cuts;
2. You vote against the government as a matter of conscience and to serve your constituents;
3. You arrange a further meeting with the Secretary of State to be attended by representatives of local authorities, Support Our Hospital, League of Friends, etc;
4. You then convene a public meeting to report back and are guided by the response of the communities you serve.

In my view we are entering a life or death struggle for the NHS we helped to build. As the great architect of the NHS Aneurin Bevan said, the NHS will only last if we fight for it.

Musical touch at flower club demo

■ COLYFORD & DISTRICT FLOWER CLUB: The April meeting of Colyford and District Flower Club was held on April 4th and we had a musical touch to accompany the beautiful arrangements done for us by Barbara Clatworthy of Coombe Martin.

The container for her first arrangement was a very large cup and saucer, filled with lots of greenery and some lovely orange roses, yellow spray carnations and very bright yellow germinis to complete; to accompany this we listened to Cat Stevens singing 'Morning Has Broken' with many of the audience joining in with all of the music.

Following on, Barbara did a continental arrangement in a window box style using tall dried agapanthas that she had sprayed green along the back to look like trees, she placed iris, yellow germinis and purple tulips with variegated holly round the base; music for this one was Katherine Jenkins singing 'All Things Bright And Beautiful'.

A horizontal display using a tall white vase was next filled with fatschedera, cornus and curled phornium, giving it a lime colour; then with lovely bright red ger-beras and some slices of lime it made a very attractive arrangement.

Next was a very large Martini glass filled with purple fabric. Barbara placed a most gorgeous lime green and pink orchid in the middle of it, and with dusky pink roses, purple alstroemeria and pink carnations placed around the outside, it was absolutely stunning.

Russell Watson was singing 'The Prayer' to accompany this one.

Then along with a couple of metal peacocks, with their feathers and tails all done in flowers, Louis Armstrong singing 'What A Wonderful World' summed up the whole afternoon.

The competition for a decorated hat was won by Joy Taylor in the Novice, Chris Penny in the Intermediate and Jean Underdown in the Advanced; Kay White was Highly Commended.

Our next meeting will be on May 2nd at 2.15pm in Colyford Hall and we will have a demo by Pat Boundy from Holsworthy called 'About Time'.

The competition is 'Time and Rhythm' – so get your thinking caps on and let's have a variety of ideas to fill the table.

Do come along and bring your friends and also enjoy tea and cake.

Talk on Armed Forces charity at Hawkchurch Ladies Club

■ HAWKCHURCH LADIES' CLUB: The Soldiers, Sailors, Airmen and Families Association (SSAFA) was the topic for the April meeting.

The talk was given by Pauline Homeshaw who came from Wiveliscombe to tell us about the work of the association.

Anyone who has served in the military is eligible for SSAFA's help in a multitude of ways – from support for families in need, legal assistance, even aiding those who are detained at Her Majesty's pleasure.

Pauline exuded warmth and enthusiasm explaining the wonderful work done by the association. Definitely a speaker we will long remember.

In May we have a surprise speaker and, as usual, all are welcome. For more information about HLC please contact Anne Gibbins 01297 678295.

What about speeding in Axminster?

■ IT'S GOOD news that action is being taken over speeding in Seaton, albeit solely in one car park.

When will action be taken over speeding in central Axminster?

Perhaps never, because the police have told me that there is no speeding problem in Axminster.

Apparently some roadside monitoring showed that there was very little infringement of the 20mph limit in the town centre.

I wonder what the monitoring consisted of – officers in uniform visible to motorists or a more discreet monitoring?

However, the same officer told me that the general public are generally not capable of correctly judging whether drivers are exceeding the speed limit as they are usually deceived by noisy engines.

Having been a driver for several decades I don't think I'd be fooled in this way.

I'd love to do my own monitoring because I'm not alone in thinking that the central Axminster speed limit is often exceeded.

Now, I know that initiatives have been proposed for members of the public to be trained on how to use the equipment.

Wouldn't an easier option be for the police to do occasional random speed checks?

The presence of the police would certainly have an influence on motoring behaviour.

From my observations, many of those exceeding the limit are not boy racers but older motorists who realise that the 20mph limit is not enforced and therefore is not serious, or perhaps they are just being thoughtless.

Sheep rescue interrupts charity walk

A CHARITY walker's medical expertise came into good use when faced with a distressed sheep struggling to give birth.

Musbury resident Dr Nigel Starey is in the process of walking the South West Coast Path in aid of Great Ormond Street Hospital Children's Charity and Hospice UK.

The 630-mile walk will be done in phases, and Mr Starey hopes to have completed it by August.

He had the month of March off work and covered the stretch from Minehead to Fowey during that time.

He has reached and passed the halfway mark and, because of work, will do the rest as day trips.

Dr Starey is originally from High Wycombe and worked as a family doctor in Essex, Derbyshire and Aberdeenshire.

He retired to Musbury in 2010 but has since worked for the local out-of-hours health service and as a locum in medical practices around the area. This was followed by a contract with the Care Quality Commission in a senior role, which has been extended.

Dr Starey said about his walking adventure: "This was supposed to be the bridge into retirement, and that is still an element, but it was delayed by a few months because of a contract extension."

He decided to undertake the walk in October last year and said: "I have had a wonderful life as a doctor – and want to give something back."

When asked why Great Ormond Street Hospital was one of his chosen causes, he said: "Because two of us Stareys owe our life to them."

He explained that his daughter suffered severe pneumonia at the age of five, and that the hospital saved her lung.

His brother-in-law had a rare stomach condition as a child, and also had his life saved by the hospital and its staff.

In addition, Dr Starey himself was a patient there in the 1950s.

The incident with the pregnant sheep happened at Hartland Point, and Dr Starey said: "I delivered a set of twin lambs. I came across a sheep in distress, in labour and unable to deliver – so I helped her."

"It was miles from anywhere with no farmhouse in sight, so I just made sure they were alright."

Most of the walk is undertaken on his own, although friends and random walkers have joined him for parts of it.

He said: "I'm more sociable with walkers than I normally would be."

With quite a few miles left to cover, he is still looking for company, and added: "I'd welcome company – possibly to discuss life and the future of the primary care sector, and I'd like to raise some money for charity."

Anyone interested in joining him or making a donation can find out more online at www.justgiving.com/fundraising/Nigel-starey1

Light Up AXMINSTER

DON'T MISS OUT ON THE FUNDRAISING FUN!

THE aim of "Light Up Axminster" isn't just to provide an eye-catching display of Christmas lights each Festive Season so as to draw-in and welcome residents and visitors into the town. Their plan is to put on various events throughout the year partly to raise funds of course, but also to bring a whole new range of events for the townsfolk to enjoy and look forward to year after year.

The main feature of 2017 will be the resurrection of The Cherry Fayre beginning on the 17th June which has its origins over eight hundred years ago back in Axminster's history. You'll be in absolutely no doubt when it's started because on day one an invasion of yarn-bombers will have adorned the town with a host of colourful displays, bunting and garlands ahead of a whole weekend of the fantastic Axe Vale Festival on the 17th and 18th down on the Axminster Showground off Trafalgar Way.

Another key event will be the Raising of the Glove ceremony on the morning of Thursday 22nd on the Minster Green celebrating the history behind the Lord of the Manor's rights to hold

"Axminster's Big Dinner"

Friday June
23rd 2017

"Light Up Axminster" with the support of the Town Council and a number of businesses and individuals including Axminster Tools and Machinery, River Cottage and NCP it's already well on its way to delivering a whole lot of fun for everyone in its first year!

One of the highlights of the eight days of community celebrations, The Cherry Fayre, is on Friday June 23rd between 4.00pm and 9.00pm where no-one will need to spend time at the end of the day in their own kitchen to feed hungry mouths because "Axminster's Big Dinner" is coming to town!

"Axminster's Big Dinner" will be a unique coming together of famished folk from near and far keen not only to enjoy some grub together but also to take advantage of the live music, fairground and other attractions that will be dotted around the heart of the town centre.

"Light Up Axminster" is therefore looking for food producers and street food traders (whether savoury or sweet) who would like to book a stall or to run a 'food demo' with the aim of having an array of tasty food to sell to the hungry hordes!

various markets and fairs throughout the year as per the original Charters held at The Guildhall. As well as the formalities there will be street theatre performances, various displays, Punch and Judy shows, a jester and more.

Friday the 23rd promises to be a particularly special day with the principal theme being that nobody will actually need to go home and cook that evening because there will be a host of street food producers and food stall-holders (savoury and sweet) in the town centre taking part in and providing what is already being hailed as "Axminster's Big Dinner" with stalls selling an array of tasty food! As well as dealing with people's appetites there will be food demonstrations, fairground attractions, games stalls, a bouncy castle, live music, the list goes on.

Various other activities will be sprinkled over the festivities including lots of things for toddlers, exhibitions, talks, another popular pizza and quiz night, live music, pub games, the list grows almost daily.

A full programme will be published and circulated as the time draws nearer but rest assured there will be something for absolutely everyone. Finally, if you're an individual, group or business planning an event during The Cherry Fayre (17th – 24th June) and would like to have it listed in the programme which will be widely circulated to thousands of households and businesses or have a hunch that you can help in some way, please contact admin@lightupaxminster.co.uk or Cindy Furse on 07930 800 225.

Desert to Jungle

Exotic & large plants

"DESERT to Jungle", at Henlade, Taunton, is not your average garden centre.

Owners Rob and Dave have created an oasis of exotic looking plants with which you can turn your garden into a taste of your favourite holiday destination. Be it the tropical Caribbean, the colourful yet dry Mediterranean, or even the Arizona desert, there are plants to suit at the nursery.

But here is the best thing of all....nearly all of them are hardy in an English winter!

Owners Rob and Dave are passionate about their nursery and are a mine of knowledge and guidance as to the most suitable plants for the look you want and the budget you can afford.

However the nursery is not just exotics. There is a large range of "bigger than average" plants, and bamboos, particularly useful for an instant effect, of if you want to screen off your neighbours garage or extension, or just cannot wait for your garden to grow."

Wide range of hardy ferns and tree ferns.

Church Street Art & Antiques

CHURCH STREET ART AND ANTIQUES in Sidmouth is an art gallery which sells an eclectic mix of affordable art mostly by listed artists. Whether your taste is for traditional art or more abstract and quirky pieces, it is worth giving Church Street Art and Antiques a visit at the shop at 7 Church Street, Sidmouth, opposite Sidmouth Parish Church. Sidmouth is a popular coastal visitor destination, with a mix of largely independent shops and cafes.

All the works are individual and original and the collection is ever changing. One particular emphasis is on Marine and Seascapes, which are very popular and reflect the area's special qualities. There are usually a number of works of this type on display in watercolour, oil or mixed media. We also have studio collections that we can show you images of.

Whether you are looking for that one special painting or seeking to furnish a property or premises with interesting and well priced art, it is worthwhile having a look at our website or shop. The shop is friendly and informal and we understand that people only buy art that they love. The store is open weekdays, Saturdays and sometimes Sundays but you may also contact Church Street Art and Antiques on 07854 448503, by email: artgallerysidmouth@gmail.com or view the website at www.artsidmouth.co.uk

The ONLY garden fence you will ever need!

ANDY AND SHELLEY Stewart, launched Colourfence 3 years ago in South Somerset & Dorset. They have been working hard towards promoting Colourfence and this is fast becoming a well-known product across their area. Great news for the area's homeowners who have become frustrated and tired of maintaining their traditional timber fencing!

The feedback from their customers has been overwhelming and this has increased their recommendations from happy customers, who are extremely pleased with their new low maintenance fence, so they can now spend more time enjoying their gardens.

West of England Laser Centre

Moles, sunspots and other blemishes...

THE West of England Laser Centre situated at Nuffield Health Taunton Hospital, can treat these plus other skin conditions by laser.

Sun spots and freckles – sometimes known as 'liver' or 'age' spots – exist where the body collects more pigment, called melanin. For removal of moles, short bursts of high laser light are applied, thus removing precise layers of superficial skin layer by layer until the lesion is significantly diminished/no longer visible. The precision of modern-day lasers minimises risks of scarring – unlike the older version lasers of the past.

Also available is laser removal of: facial thread veins, warts, veruccas, "blood spots", excess hair and tattoos. In addition various injection treatments are used to smooth away fine facial lines and/or to add volume and definition, eg. to the lips. Baggy eyelid problems can also be solved at the centre by a minor surgical procedure.

Beauty Spot or Mole?

Some moles are more attractive than others, if yours is bothering you, why not have it quickly and painlessly removed by laser?

Deborah Pearce Hypnotherapy

AXMINSTER Health and Wellbeing Centre Hypnotherapist Deborah Pearce has been awarded the Advanced Hypnotherapy Diploma (AHD) by the prestigious Clifton Practice Hypnotherapy Training Centre (CPHT).

The AHD has been accredited by the NCFE as having measurable learning outcomes that have been benchmarked at level 5 (using Ofqual's Qualification and Accreditation Framework). It is at an equivalent level to a Foundation Degree.

To qualify, practitioners need to have at least 3 years' experience after gaining their Hypnotherapy Practitioner Diploma (HPD), itself a highly regarded qualification within the profession. They also need to attend post-qualification CPD training courses on subjects as diverse as Hypnotherapy for Childbirth, Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD), Neuro Linguistic Programming (NLP), Obesity, Psychoneuroimmunology and a range of other related topics.

As well as meeting these criteria, Deborah also participated in the Clifton Practice Research Programme, gathering evidence of clients' progress via specially written software.

Deborah explains, "In addition to the ongoing training and the practical experience of helping hundreds of clients over the years since I first qualified, I also prepared a comprehensive portfolio of written evidence for evaluation by external assessors. It was hard work, but like anything worth doing, was immensely satisfying. I am delighted that I can now put the letters 'AHD' after my name".

Deborah qualified as a clinical hypnotherapist in 2008 and since then has built a thriving practice in East Devon, with therapy rooms in Axminster, Ottery St Mary and Sidmouth, working at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre on Wednesdays. I HOLD my private chiropody clinic at Townsend House Surgery in Seaton.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and re-assessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.

Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

Dorset Facial Aesthetics Clinic

Axminster Clinic for fine lines and wrinkles is moving!

AS WE are now based in the beautiful setting of Charmouth, Dorset, we are changing our name to Dorset Facial Aesthetics Clinic!

We are excited to be relocating to the calm and peaceful Stillwaters Therapy Centre in the heart of the village. There is on street parking outside the centre and also a large car park a few minutes walk away. Our new address is The Elms, The Street, Charmouth, Dorset, DT6 6PJ.

Our clinic was established in 1999 and our Doctor is an associate of the famous Knightsbridge Clinic of Dr Rita Rakus. In addition to our various injectables and fillers, our Doctor has introduced some exciting new wrinkle reducing, skin tightening and up-lifting treatments. Our most popular treatments are Ulthera, Sculptra and Rejuvagen. All of our treatments are suitable for both men and women.

Rejuvagen is a microneedling system for skin rejuvenation that can help repair deep skin damage without causing further scarring or discomfort. The skin will become firmer, pores smaller, pigmentation, texture and the overall condition of the skin improved.

Ulthera is a non-surgical, non-invasive procedure for the face that lifts, tones and tightens loose skin. The treatment will gradually stimulate the growth of new collagen over time to strengthen and tone your skin from within with no downtime.

Sculptra works differently from traditional fillers gradually reducing lines giving a fuller natural look that can last up to 24 months.

To find out more information on our treatments, please visit our website.

We welcome clients old and new to our friendly clinic for a free no obligation consultation with our highly qualified and experienced Doctor.

The Magnificent Seven!

'MIDDLE AGE' can be a tricky time for some, as Arnold, Logan, Kitty, Marley, Ernie, Ollie and Alan are finding out. Passed over for adoption time and time again for 'younger, fluffier, cuter' cats, they are wondering if they will ever find love again?

With the kitten season nearly upon us, their depression and fear of the future have taken hold, and it can only get worse. How will they compete with these younger, more attractive models that everyone seems to fall in love with so quickly?

Despite their good manners, undemanding ways and expert use of cat flaps, they just don't seem to get a look in. They don't even demand your attention with trinkets and toys, instead just calmly reward your love with loyalty, friendship and adoration.

"They are mature, calm and very loving, so just coming into their prime!" said Tara Nirula, Re-homing Manager at Ferne. "However, at some stage in their lives they have been unwanted or abandoned, so trust is an issue and they will need experienced and patient owners. Once that trust is gained you will have a friend for life."

These seven cats have now been with Ferne for a long time and it's important we find them forever homes soon. Unfortunately for them, older cats don't adjust well to life in the cattery surrounded by strange cats and missing their home comforts.

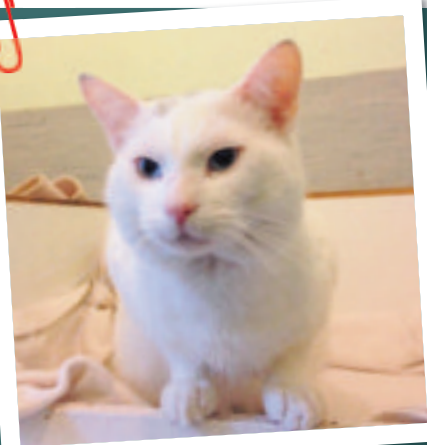

Our featured cats can be found on our website www.ferneanimalsanctuary.org. If you are interested in any of them, please give us a call at the Sanctuary on Tel: 01460 65214.

Ferne Animal Sanctuary is a registered charity and relies on the support of the public and dedicated volunteers to continue its vital work. Ferne has been caring for unwanted and abandoned animals for over 75 years.

Hello there! My name is Ollie!

I am a sweet cat who was originally a stray but I was in a home recently and was very well behaved! I am really loving once I get to know you but I take a little while to gain your trust as I was out on the streets. I can be very chatty once I am happy and really love attention! I would be happiest as the only pet in the home and I haven't met any children yet. I am litter trained and non-destructive in the cattery.

Nice to meet you! I'm Alan!

I am, as you can see, quite frightened at the moment but I am very affectionate and really like to be made a fuss of once I get to know you (which doesn't take long). I have lived with children aged 6 years old before, but I would prefer to be the only pet in the home. I would also like a rural home where I can go out and explore when I feel like it!

Hi! I'm Arnold!

I am an independent cat who was abandoned by my owner and left to fend for myself. I am ok with other cats but am not keen on dogs. I would be happy to live on a farm or a home in the countryside where I could earn my keep and also be able to explore as I love being outside!

I am not happy being kept inside and really need a second chance in life and somewhere I can call home!

I am happiest to live in the countryside in a home without any children and where I can have a fuss on my terms. I am litter trained and not destructive in the cattery.

I am a little worried at the moment after being brought into the Sanctuary as my owner can no longer care for me. I absolutely love human attention and really enjoy being made a fuss of so I am looking for a home with owners who have time to give me the care and attention I crave. I am looking for a quieter home without children or other pets and I will also need an owner who has the time to groom me regularly in order to prevent me from getting matted. I am litter trained and not destructive in the home.

Choral Society concert to feature two twentieth century pieces

MEMBERS of the Axminster and District Choral Society are excited at the prospect of performing two choral works from the 20th century at their forthcoming concert on April 29th.

John Rutter's Gloria was composed in 1974 and is well established in the choral repertoire. It is in three movements, which correspond roughly to traditional symphonic structure. The accompaniment of brass ensemble with timpani, percussion and organ makes a joyful noise in the outer movements, but is used more softly and introspectively in the middle movement. Rutter's range of influences spans both classical and popular traditions. Rutter has said:

"We can all learn from each other. I listen to all sorts of music – not just choral. – I pick up sounds and ideas from many parts of the world. The wonderful thing about choirs around the world is that they don't all sound alike, because singing is related to speech and, for example, Russian choirs don't sound like Swedish or Cuban or South African choirs. Long live the differences."

The Gloria will be conducted by Director of Music Peter Parrshall and the soloist will be Harriet Mountford, who is welcomed back after her fine performance in the autumn concert "Alexander's Feast." A first class honours graduate from York University, Harriet lives in Berkshire with her husband, John, where she enjoys a varied career of oratorio, recital and consort singing, alongside her teaching commitment at The Abbey Junior School in Reading. Harriet will be in Axminster again in June to give a recital of Lieder, Mélodie and English song, depicting 'A Lover's Journey', as part of the Axminster Lunchtime Recital Series Music at the Minster.

Joseph Jorgen's Messe en l'honneur du Saint-Sacrement, Opus 130 is a work of great lyrical and melodic power. It is a harmonically rich piece in six movements, part of the French tradition, with musical ties to Fauré and Franck. Jongen began to write this mass in 1945. It was composed in memory of his brother Alphonse, who had died after a difficult operation. It had been a bad time for Joseph. His son had been arrested by the Gestapo and was in a concentration camp. "Jacques was in Buchenwald ... Suddenly ... we learnt that he was in Weimar and was soon to be liberated by the Americans—What A Resurrection! It was then that I began to write the Mass." It will be performed, as written, by full choir with organ and brass ensemble.

The solo parts will be sung by four young members of the University of Exeter Chapel Choir. Anna Sharman – Soprano, Olivia Parr – Alto, Sam Foster – Tenor, Jacob Harrison – Bass. Judy Martin, Associate Director of Music, will conduct.

Tickets are £15 and £12 from Archway Books, Church St, Axminster, from members of the choir or phone 01404 881 838. For more information visit the website at www.axminsterchoral.co.uk

Riviera Dogs ready to rock the Gateway

RIVIERA DOGS are a seven piece band based in South West England delivering a polished set of quality music.

They have all performed in some of the most popular and longest running bands in the area but wanted to do something different; to play the music that we loved in our teens, to tackle some more difficult stuff, and to have a good time.

Not the easy ones, not the obvious ones, but the ones that will make you go "oh, I remember this", and definitely full blown rockin' and bopping!

Riviera Dogs play live at The Gateway, Seaton on Saturday, April 29th. Doors open 7.30pm, with a licensed bar. Tickets are £13, available from The Gateway Box Office on 01297 625699.

ON THURSDAY, May 11th, The Gateway will be streaming National Theatre's performance of Obsession, starring Jude Law (The Young Pope, Closer, The Talented Mr Ripley). The stage production will be broadcast live from the Barbican Theatre in London. Ivo van Hove (NT Live: A View from the Bridge, Hedda Gabler) directs this new stage adaptation of Luchino Visconti's 1943 film.

Gino is a drifter, down-at-heel and magnetically handsome. At a road side restaurant he encounters husband and wife, Giuseppe and Giovanna. Irresistibly attracted to each other, Gino and Giovanna begin a fiery affair and plot to murder her husband. But, in this chilling tale of passion and destruction, the crime only serves to tear them apart.

The stage production of Obsession is produced by Barbican Theatre Productions Limited, London and Toneelgroep Amsterdam; co-commissioned by Wiener Festwochen and Les Théâtres de la Ville de Luxembourg; co-produced by Holland Festival and David Binder Productions; and supported by the Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands.

Doors will open on May 11th at 6.30pm. Tickets are £12.50 in advance or £15 on the door.

THE GATEWAY will hold a film night on Saturday, May 13th, showing Collateral Beauty.

When a successful New York advertising executive suffers a great tragedy he retreats from life.

While his concerned friends try desperately to reconnect with him, he seeks answers from the universe by writing letters to Love, Time and Death. But it is not until his notes bring unexpected personal responses that he begins to understand how these constants interlock in a life fully lived, and how even the deepest loss can reveal moments of meaning and beauty.

Young at Art

YOUNG artists, aged from 2 to 9, are the stars of the latest exhibition at Ilminster Arts Centre. This is the second time that pupils from Greenfyld Church of England First School have showcased their work at the Arts Centre - the first time proved so inspirational that they couldn't wait to make it a regular date in the school calendar!

Greenfyld pupils have been hard at work preparing for the exhibition, which opens on Tuesday 2 May, and they are looking forward to showing artworks in a range of media to the local community.

Art provision at the school has received a recent boost when Greenfyld won the opportunity to take part in training and workshops with the Royal Academy of Arts through the National Pupil Premium Award.

Explaining Greenfyld's art philosophy, Headteacher Claire Oaten, says, 'Art brings out many skills that children can use in other areas of their lives, and gives our pupils an outlet for their style, emotions and personality, as well as teaching them resilience to keep experimenting until they create the finished piece they envisaged.

"Allowing our pupils to share their work within the wider community shows them how much we value their work and our belief in them as artists."

Claire Oaten thanked the Arts Centre for hosting the exhibition, adding 'We hope that many in Ilminster will show their support by coming to see the exhibition - our pupils are proving that the artistic future of the town is flourishing in their hands.'

Greenfyld Art Alive 2017 is at Ilminster Arts Centre at the Meeting House from Tuesday 2nd to Saturday, May 13th. Monday-Friday 9.30am-4.30pm, Saturday 9.30am-2.30pm. Admission is free.

Sweetland's grand opening

PAM, GERALD and their daughter Geraldine created Bovey's Down Farm and Camping over 25yrs ago. From small beginnings a wonderfully unique licensed Wedding venue has evolved.

Very rural in their approach, it was always a plan that one-day Weddings, Civil Marriages and commitment ceremonies plus special occasions would happen in the small woodland with far reaching views of the Farway valley.

Styling a open fronted Civil Ceremony Pavilion in the Woods, was just as Pam had always dreamed, plus a converting a farm barn, retaining a rustic presence that is ideal for your last night of freedom party and wedding reception with lots of outdoor space and has now the added luxury of a combined Glorious glamping experience. A furnished 5 mtr Bridal Bell tent has attached an Empourer Ultimate 6m

Showtime

ON THE SHOWBIZ BEAT

A fond farewell to Broadchurch at Bridport screening

WHEN I tell people that I live in Lyme Regis but spend part of my week working in London, I think most assume I lead a bit of a charmed life. I'm not going to say it isn't brilliant, but what people don't quite understand is that I'm not even a bit affluent and I don't actually own a property in either place.

When I'm in London I lodge in some of the dodgiest places you could ever find and when I'm in Lyme - like hundreds of other locals - I privately rent. Sadly - as local councillor Cheryl Reynolds quite rightly stated at a meeting last week - that means my housing status is not secure.

It's a fact that was made brutally evident last week when I was served with notice on my house giving me just eight weeks to find somewhere for my family to live.

It's a predicament countless local families find themselves in and with low wages and high house prices, many are forced to leave the area.

My grandmother was born in Hay Lane in 1913 and although I haven't lived in the town for my whole life, I feel like I can call myself a local and would very much like to be able to stay.

Anyway, with all of the personal upheaval I decided to take the week off and so my show biz engagements were fewer but I did pop along to the final screening of Broadchurch at the Electric

■ Nicky Sweetland and comedian Pam Ann

Palace in Bridport and it was a real occasion.

We were treated to the first showing of a documentary about the show before the last programme was broadcast.

Cast members Julie Hesmondhalgh, Andrew Buchan and Arthur Darvill joined writer Chris Chibnall for a post-show Q and A, which was entertaining partly due to the questions, which were asked by the Bridport audience. At one point a well-known Bridport local commandeered the microphone and didn't look as if she was going to give it up without a fight.

I did also pop up to London to see a few shows and was cheered up by some of my favourite stage spectacles in particular Kinky Boots, which never fails to raise a smile.

I also howled with laughter at the stand up comedian Pam Ann, whose irreverent musings were just what I needed to help stave off my woeful feelings of impending doom.

I also did interviews with a few lovely chaps including former Eastenders star Neil McDermott (who will soon be starring in The Wind in the Willows at the London Palladium) and Michael Xavier, who's currently appearing opposite Glenn Close in Sunset Boulevard on Broadway.

Next week I'm off to the Lyric Hammersmith to see a play called City of Glass and then to The Vaults at Waterloo to take part in some immersive theatre. I'll be submersing myself into Alice's Adventures Underground, which looks like it's going to be a real treat. With so many theatres to visit, who needs a house anyway?

ESTABLISHED 1858

FOXLEAZE, WHITCOMBE ROAD, BEAMINSTER

Jeremy Smith, Partner of Symonds & Sampson has just brought to the market what he feels is one of the best bungalows in the area. Jeremy commented, such properties very rarely arise.

This particular home has been beautifully extended and modernised and lies on the outskirts of Beaminster. There are good size lawned gardens and a real feature is the detached lodge with annexe over which could provide either secondary accommodation or a supplementary income.

There is parking possibly for 15 – 20 vehicles and further benefits from Upvc double glazing, oil-fired central heating and early viewing is essential.

The accommodation comprises a large reception hall leading to the super dual aspect sitting room with French doors to the garden, the kitchen/dining room is absolutely fantastic being a very good size, triple aspect with a lovely vaulted beamed ceiling and a number of fitted appliances. There are three double bedrooms which are all dual aspect and an en-suite bath/shower room to the master, there is also a family bathroom.

The gardens as previously mentioned are also a particularly good size laid predominantly to lawn with a number of mature trees including conifer and copper beech hedging.

Symonds & Sampson are quoting an asking price of £695,000 for the freehold and early viewing is advised. Please call us on 01308 863100 for an appointment to view.

New GT and GT Sport models spearhead updated Mazda2 range

MAZDA has announced a host of updates and changes to its highly acclaimed Mazda2 range. Highlights across all models include the introduction of Mazda's G-Vectoring Control technology and detailed improvements to the suspension and steering to deliver improved ride comfort and steering response. In addition, interior upgrades include new seat fabrics, a new steering wheel and enhanced sound insulation.

Thanks to its KODO: Soul of Motion design and SKYACTIV technology, the current Mazda2 set new standards for a Mazda supermini. Launched in 2015, its combination of sharp handling, attractive styling and efficient engines helped it stand out in the ultra-competitive small car sector. Now subtle enhancements and the launch of two new models - GT and GT Sport - are designed to keep the Mazda2 at the forefront of this ever popular segment.

Now exclusively offered with Mazda's 1.5-litre SKYACTIV-G petrol engine, the simplified eight-model Mazda2 range starts at just £12,695 for the 75ps SE, while the 75ps engine is also offered in SE-L trim. Making up the bulk of the range the 90ps version of the 1.5-litre SKYACTIV-G engine is offered in SE-L Nav, Sport Nav and GT trim, while the 115ps output engine is exclusively matched to the flagship GT Sport and a six-speed manual gearbox.

All models feature new seat fabrics, a new steering wheel and revised door mirrors with wraparound indicators. Enhanced refinement across the range is achieved thanks to the adoption of noise-insulating glass in the windscreen and additional under bonnet sound proofing. Plus, to reduce high-frequency noise entering the cabin from the rear, sound absorbing material has been added to the inside of the tailgate, the parcel shelf and the spare wheel well.

This improvement in refinement is matched to subtle enhancements to the Mazda2's already driver-focused dynamics. Front and rear damper settings have been revised to enhance ride quality, while to improve body control the front anti-roll bar bushing has changed and the structure of the front lower suspension arm has been modified.

Additionally, a small recalibration of the electric power steering has resulted in improved steering feel.

The upgraded Mazda2's dynamic enhancements also see the introduction of G-Vectoring Control (GVC). Having made its debut on the 2017 Mazda3, GVC is now standard across the Mazda2 range, the first of Mazda's SKYACTIV-VEHICLE DYNAMICS technologies it varies engine torque to optimise loading on the wheels when cornering to indiscreetly provide more precise handling and improve comfort.

Across the key trim levels the upgraded Mazda2 now features additional equipment: SE-L and SE-L Nav cars now feature LED front fog lamps, auto power-folding mirrors and passenger seat height adjustment, while Sport Nav models benefit from subtle visual enhancements including new 16-inch alloy wheels and a shark fin antenna.

However, thanks to new Deep Crimson Mica and Eternal Blue Mica paint colours that are both exclusive to the GT and GT Sport, it's these models that really stand out. LED headlights, LED daylight running lights, a contrasting black rear spoiler and 16-inch silver alloy wheels further distinguish these new flagship models, while inside both the GT and GT Sport feature black leather seats with a brown dash insert, a colour head-up display, Mazda2 scuff plates and on the 115ps GT Sport, a reversing camera.

As before, the Mazda2 features excellent active safety equipment with all 90ps and 115ps powered cars featuring Smart City Brake Support and Lane Departure Warning System. All cars outside of the entry-level 75ps engine models come with Mazda's 7" Colour touch-screen display with MZD-Connect infotainment system, integrated navigation, DAB radio and cruise control, while Sport Nav and GT-Line models feature high-end equipment like privacy glass, rear parking sensors, climate control air-conditioning and smart keyless entry.

Commenting on the revisions to the Mazda2 Jeremy Thomson, Managing Director Mazda Motors UK said, "with annual UK sales of over 10,000 cars, the Mazda2 is a really important car in our line up. It may be the smallest car we produce, but it has at its heart the same values of style, driving involvement and quality that mark out all our products. These updates come just two years after the current Mazda2's launch but they are designed to ensure the Mazda2 remains a class-leading contender in what remains the biggest selling segment in the UK car market."

Adding, "our simplified eight-model line-up has been created based on feedback from our customers and dealers, and with the new GT and GT Sport models we have two standout models that deliver the high-end equipment, premium looks and high-quality discerning small car buyers are looking for."

New Hyundai Santa Fe Endurance: Unleash your inner explorer with new limited edition model

HYUNDAI Motor UK announces the launch of a highly-equipped SUV perfect for those who consider every drive an expedition – the Santa Fe Endurance Edition.

Sitting at the top of Hyundai's range, it celebrates a recent history-making drive by Patrick Bergel, the Great Grandson of legendary polar explorer, Sir Ernest Shackleton.

In December 2016, Bergel completed a 30-day expedition in a near-standard 2.2-litre diesel Santa Fe, driving across Antarctica from Union Camp to McMurdo and back again, commemorating the centenary of Shackleton's heroic Trans-Antarctic expedition of 1914-16.

This was the first time a passenger vehicle had ever traversed the Antarctic continent and the standard 2.2-litre Santa Fe used by Bergel featured only a handful of modifications to counter the tough Antarctic conditions, such as the fitment of large, low-pressure tyres, a 250-litre fuel tank and a pre-heater for the cold.

To commemorate this incredible achievement, Hyundai Motor UK will make just 500 Endurance Edition models available.

Each car is based on the 2.2 diesel 7 seat 4WD Automatic Santa Fe in Premium SE trim with Convenience Pack, which boasts Smart Electric Tailgate, Panoramic Sunroof, Autonomous Emergency Braking, Smart Cruise Control and Around View Monitor. In addition, the Santa Fe Endurance will also feature additional special equipment.

Customers can choose from five limited colours: solid Creamy White, pearl White Crystal, metallic Titanium Silver, pearl Phantom Black and metallic Mineral Blue – the same colour as that of Bergel's expedition car.

Endurance Editions are further marked out by 19-inch alloy wheels – wrapped in 235/55 R19 tyres – Side Bar Sport running steps. The final touch is a special Endurance logo, which can be found on the B-pillar and interior floor mats. The eye-catching logo commemorates Shackleton's Endurance expedition and features the Shackleton Family Motto and a 28-point compass representing the 28 crew that survived.

The Santa Fe Endurance will be priced at £38,995, representing a saving of £2,400 over a standard Premium SE with Convenience Pack and Automatic transmission and can be ordered from 18 May 2017.

Tony Whitehorn, President and CEO of Hyundai UK said: "This new Endurance Edition offers customers an incredibly well-equipped Santa Fe, one that will be able to tackle everything family life throws at it...and more. As Sir Ernest Shackleton's Great Grandson, Patrick Bergel proved just a few months ago, with just a few choice modifications, you could even traverse Antarctica!"

SW PENINSULA LEAGUE

Division One (West)

Axminster Town 1

Exwick Villa 0

AXMINSTER Town completed their season with another three points against relegation threatened Exwick Villa to secure a sixth-placed finish.

Ax manager Jon Hurford took the opportunity to experiment with a 3-5-2 formation that he is keen to put into place next season.

The Tigers took some time to settle and Villa had the best chance of a scrappy first half but keeper Brett Garner got down well to save.

Garner, standing in for the unavailable Scott Wells-Burr, was also called upon to make two more good stops early in the second period.

However, the Tigers then wrestled the momentum back from their battling visitors and began forging chances at the other end.

But they had to wait until the 87th minute for the winner when Nathan Warren burst through and netted with a crisp drive from the edge of the area.

"We were adjusting to the new formation in the first half, but improved after the break - I think the 3-5-2 suits the personnel we're likely to have for next season," said Hurford.

D&E Round-up

with Collin Goodwin

THE Premier Division championship race door is still slightly ajar after second placed NEW-

TOWN finally laid their bogey team FENITON to rest.

Town had not beaten Fenny in the Premier for nearly eight years, losing seven times and drawing twice in that time, but they managed to claw their way to a 2-1 victory which means they still have a chance of the title.

Goals from Aaron Land and Ben Howard had Newtown two up, but Fenny deservedly hit back with a Charlie Selley penalty, his third spot kick in four days, among the five goals he scored in Fennys 7-1 win against Beer Albion on Wednesday.

Newtown also finish with home matches against Bow AAC on Wednesday and Beer next Saturday.

However, HONITON TOWN are eyeing the winning post after beating BEER ALBION 4-2 with a hard working, but solid effort.

The Fishermen gave it their best shot but did not quite have the finishing accuracy of the Mountbatten Park side whose Aiden Barrett struck twice.

Chris Long and Joe Mulhall also scored while Chris Long and Jack White replied. Victory against Exmouth Amateurs next Saturday will clinch the Hippers first ever Premier title and probable promotion to the SWPL.

ELMORE saw their outside chance wrecked at HEAVITREE UNITED where they were beaten 3-1, and the Heavies can still yet rob the eagles of third place.

WITHERIDGE RES were denied a last minute penalty at home to BICKLEIGH and had to settle for a 2-2 draw. Tom Williams and Reece Jordan were the Withy scorers but the dropped points might prove costly in their chase for third place in Division One.

LAPFORD are Division Two champions after crushing AXMOUTH UNITED 8-0. Six goals from Mark Tucker were the highlight, with Harry Leach and Dom Stapleton adding singles, and with their only challengers CULLOMPTON RES slipping to a 2-1 reverse at home to DAWLISH UNITED, the race is over. Tom Broome was the Rangers sole marksman.

CHAGFORD were 3-1 winners at LYMPSTONE, and if they can win their last two games will overtake current third place occupants Heavitree Res. The Lym-pets slip down into the bottom two after TIPTON ST JOHN pulled off a 2-2 draw at DAWLISH.

Division Four runners up THORVERTON were beaten 4-3 by PRIORY who must now hope that COUNTESS WEAR DYNAMOES, 2-0 winners against the bottom side SAMPFORD PEVERELL, do not win their final match to snatch sixth place from their City neighbours.

Division Five champions and Devon Intermediate cup winners ROYAL OAK ended their league season with a 3-3 draw at WHIPTON & PINHOE who finish third behind CREDITON RES whose opponents FENITON RES failed to turn up.

Division Six champions WINKLEIGH won their penultimate match 4-3 at HALWILL RES, while runners up EXWICK VILLAGE romped to an 8-2 win at HATHERLEIGH RES.

LYME REGIS RESERVES took a giant stride towards claiming their place when they dislodged HEMYOCK 5-1. Declan Ellis bagged a hat-trick, including two in the opening nine minutes, and Julien Simier and Ally Ratzenbury had the others for the Davey Fort side.

TEDBURN ST MARY are into the semi finals of the Bill Seele cup following their surprise 1-0 win against HEAVITREE RES.

NORTH TAWTON made it into the Football Express Cup final after an exciting 4-3 success at CENTRAL, and the final of the Geary Cup will be between EXMOUTH SPARTANS and UPOTTERY RES.

* The League were rocked in midweek when referee Dave Carter (41) collapsed and died of a heart attack.

Dave had officiated at Honiton Town in Premier Division match the previous week, the former Hawkchurch United goalkeeper was a Head teacher in Crewkerne.

The League send their heartfelt sympathy to his family and many colleagues. See page three for full story

Chard end on a high

Chard 35 Teignmouth 24

South West One

THIS was a really entertaining game with both sides throwing the ball around at every opportunity writes Glyn Hughes.

The visitors missed an early penalty in front of the posts before Chard took the lead with a try from Will Hopkinson following an excellent catch and drive from a lineout. Oesman converted.

Chard were then gifted two tries when timely interceptions by resulted in Oesman and then Johnson crossing for a try a piece. Oesman added the extras and Chard led 21-0 after just 20 minutes' play.

But shortly before the break the hosts were pegged back when Lidstone and Luffman crossed for tries to bring Teignmouth right back into the match. Laventure, who didn't have the best of afternoon's with the boot, added one conversion and at the interval Chard led 21-12.

Ten minutes into the second half Chard lost the ball after some wild handling and were caught out by a kick ahead and Luffman made the most of the opportunity with his second try. Laventure bisected the uprights and Teignmouth were within two points of the lead.

They went ahead for the first time when flanker Patterson drove over and at this point were good value for their 21-24 advantage.

However, Chard ended the game as they had started it and clicked into gear in the final quarter. Johnson got his second try and Siljeur finished things off with a typically brilliant individual effort. Oesman converted both to give Chard a fine victory.

Chard will be particularly pleased with the efforts of their young front row in this game and finished up with three players aged 20 or under. Hooker Ben Robinson who played excellently throughout before being substituted late in the game also really showed that he has improved his all round game with some lovely passing and strong running.

With such another good performance at home Chard will be wondering why an earth they have been unable to produce the same on their travels with poor away results ultimately costing them their place in South West One.

Chard will play next season in either Western Counties West (WCW) or Western Counties North (WCN) although even Southern Counties is a possibility.

The understanding is that the club would prefer the WCN because it will mean slightly less travelling but the WCW is probably a more attractive league.

But it is all subjective and the final decision will be made by SWRFU and will no doubt depend on the relegation and promotions from the other leagues involved.

Chard 2nd xv, who have had an up and down season, finished on a high with a resounding 72-12 win at Midsomer Norton. They will certainly be looking to improve on their mid table position next season.

The Club awards dinner was held at the weekend with THOMAS WALDRON of Exeter chiefs the main guest.

The Club AGM is this coming Thursday at 7pm.

Chard set for Tesco windfall

CHARD RFC is bidding to bag a cash boost from the Tesco Bags of Help initiative.

Tesco teamed up with Groundwork to launch its community funding scheme, which sees grants of £4,000, £2,000 and £1,000 - all raised from the 5p bag levy - awarded to local community projects.

Three groups in every Tesco region have been shortlisted to receive the cash award and Chard RFC is one of the groups on the shortlist.

CRFC Chairman Gavin Smillie said he was delighted that Chard Rugby Club have been shortlisted as the club continues to provide rugby coaching and facilities in Chard and the grant would go towards much need lighting at the training ground.

Voting is open in stores throughout May and June. Customers will cast their vote using a token given to them at the check-out in store each time they shop.

petanque honiton

Edged out by neighbours

HONITON'S third league match of the season ended in a 3-2 home defeat by early pacesetters OTTERTY ST MARY.

The match followed an identical pattern to the previous loss to Chudleigh - standing all square at 1-1 after the triples round before Ottery took a decisive lead by winning two of the doubles and Honiton winning the final closely fought doubles game.

Triples: Cecily Young, Tony Prior & Larry Halliwell lost 13-9, Jenny Lavender, Chris Bigmore & Charlie O'Reilly won 13-8.

Doubles: Young & Halliwell lost 13-7, Prior & O'Reilly lost 13-10, Lavender & Bigmore won 13-12. Honiton captain Chris Bigmore said: "They are a strong team but our home advantage was nullified as Ottery fielded a side that had extensive experience of playing on our terrain, in 2015 they shared our facilities. But we still took two points and are third place in the league, so we can't be disappointed with that".

The club have an early chance of revenge as the next match is away at Ottery's Strawberry lane ground.

The total amount since 1997 that AVR have donated to charities various is £364,450.

Each representative was invited to say how their money would be spent and varied from illuminated batons for Seaton Majorettes, Umborne Village Hall kitchen extension, a multi-sensory garden at the back of Seaton library and British Lung Foundation.

An AVR spokesman said: "The Grizzly would not be possible without all the help, but it is organised by a small band of volunteers headed by race director Tony Smith along with marshal maestro Rick Wood, Steve Haines, Carol Austin, Tim Sibley and Phil Bayliss with Eleanor Wood keeping the group well fed and watered during the long committee meetings."
